Dad, Joe Sentz, uses a rug as an imaginary bathtub to demonstrate how to ta a really efficient bath.

Mr. Spanogle, director, Pat Sechrist, student director, and Vicki Miller, stage manager, discuss prompting.

Anne, Kathy Smith, reveals the new style in leg-wear to her father.

Ernestine, Linda Hanna, puts brother Bill, Brad Mich
in his place.

Joe Scales, Bob Yeager, cheerleader and big wheel at school, confronts Dad with the question, "What's wrong with me?"

Dad is a terrific efficiency expert, and it is his firm belief that what works in the factory will work in the home! Despite his high school age daughters' interest in boys and dates, Dad pushes ahead with better organization for his large family. He puts up a chart for the children to initial after completing each task and appoints a utilities officer to levy fines on wasters of electricity.

While this provides uproarious humor and fast-moving action, there is an imperative reason for it all. Dad has a heart condition which he is keeping secret. On borrowed time Dad does his best to make his family efficient.

Our talented cast of 1970, under the competent direction of Mr. Spanogle, made this play an overwhelming success.

Anne indirectly refers to Miss Brill, Sandy Deller, as a louse, while taking an oral exam.

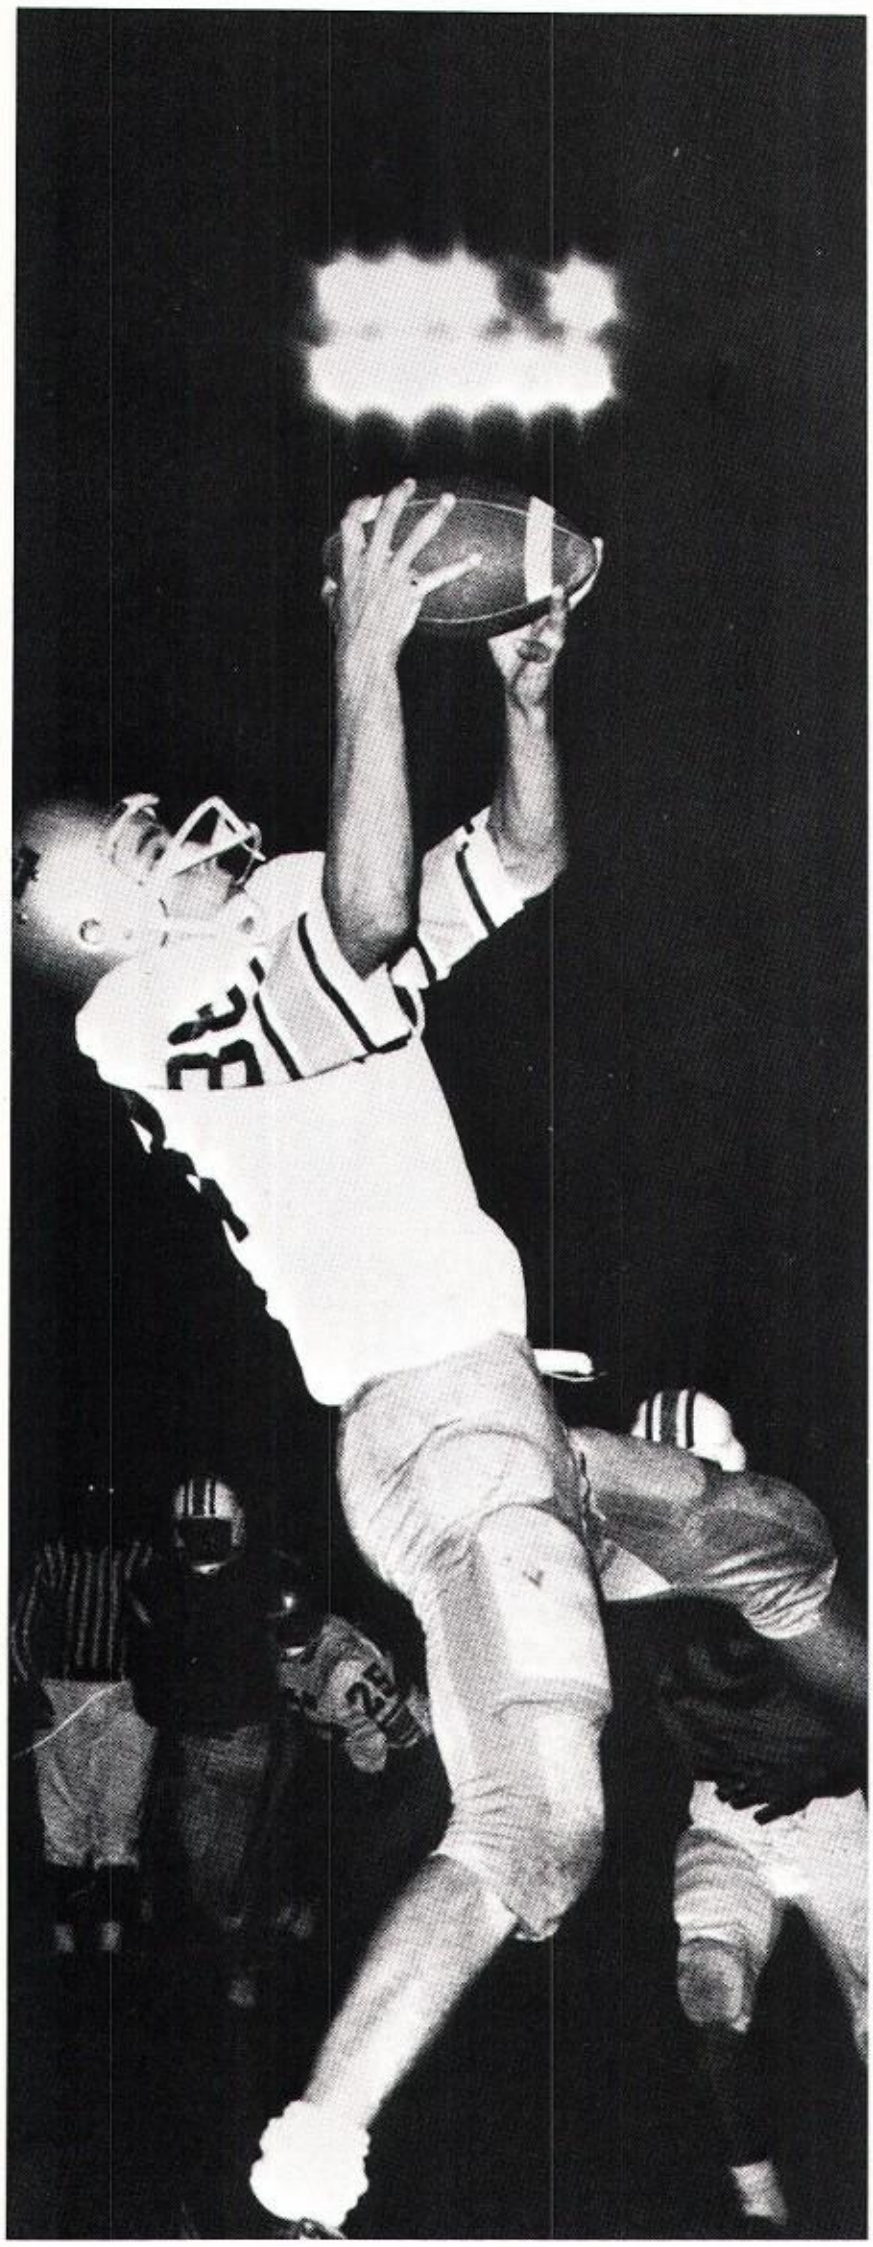
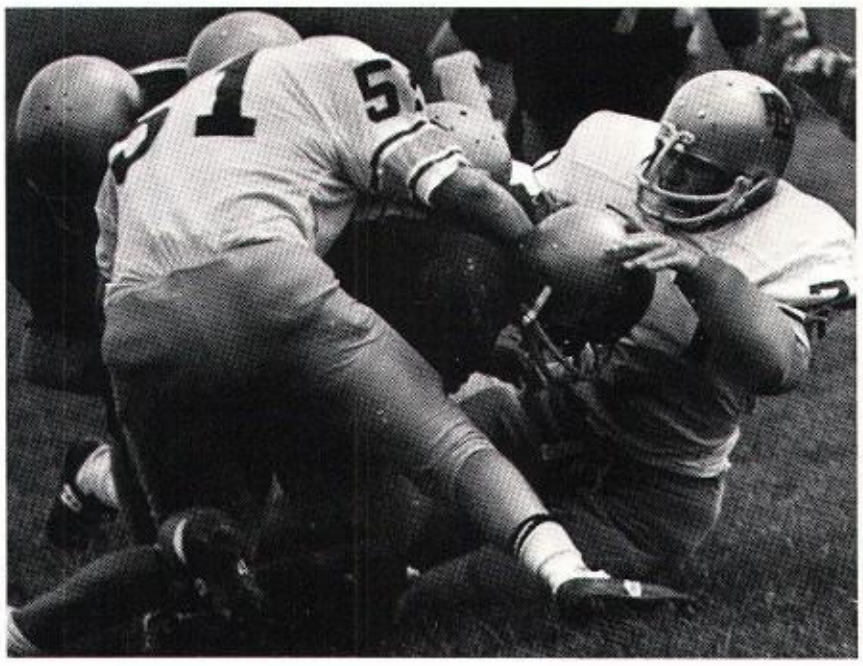
To The Gridiron



Tim Gorman, an outstanding receiver, can even catch in the dark.

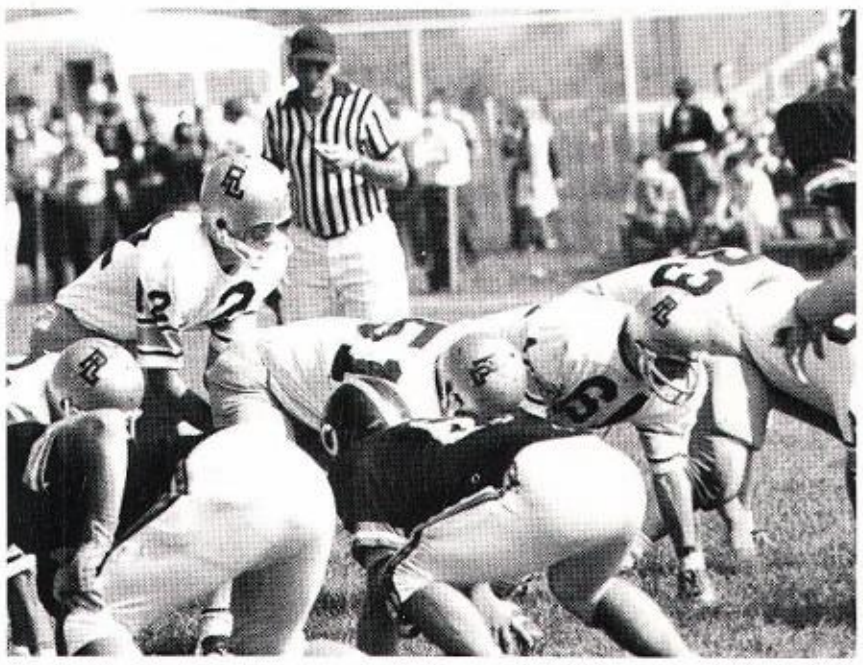
One of our darker moments.

A fleet-footed yardage gainer, Steve Neff, sweeps around the end.



Don Hamilton and Delbert Dosch smother a Big Springs ball carrier.

"Duke" Markey and the defense gang tackle a Central player.



Our trusty quarterback, Keith Green, eyes the Central defense.

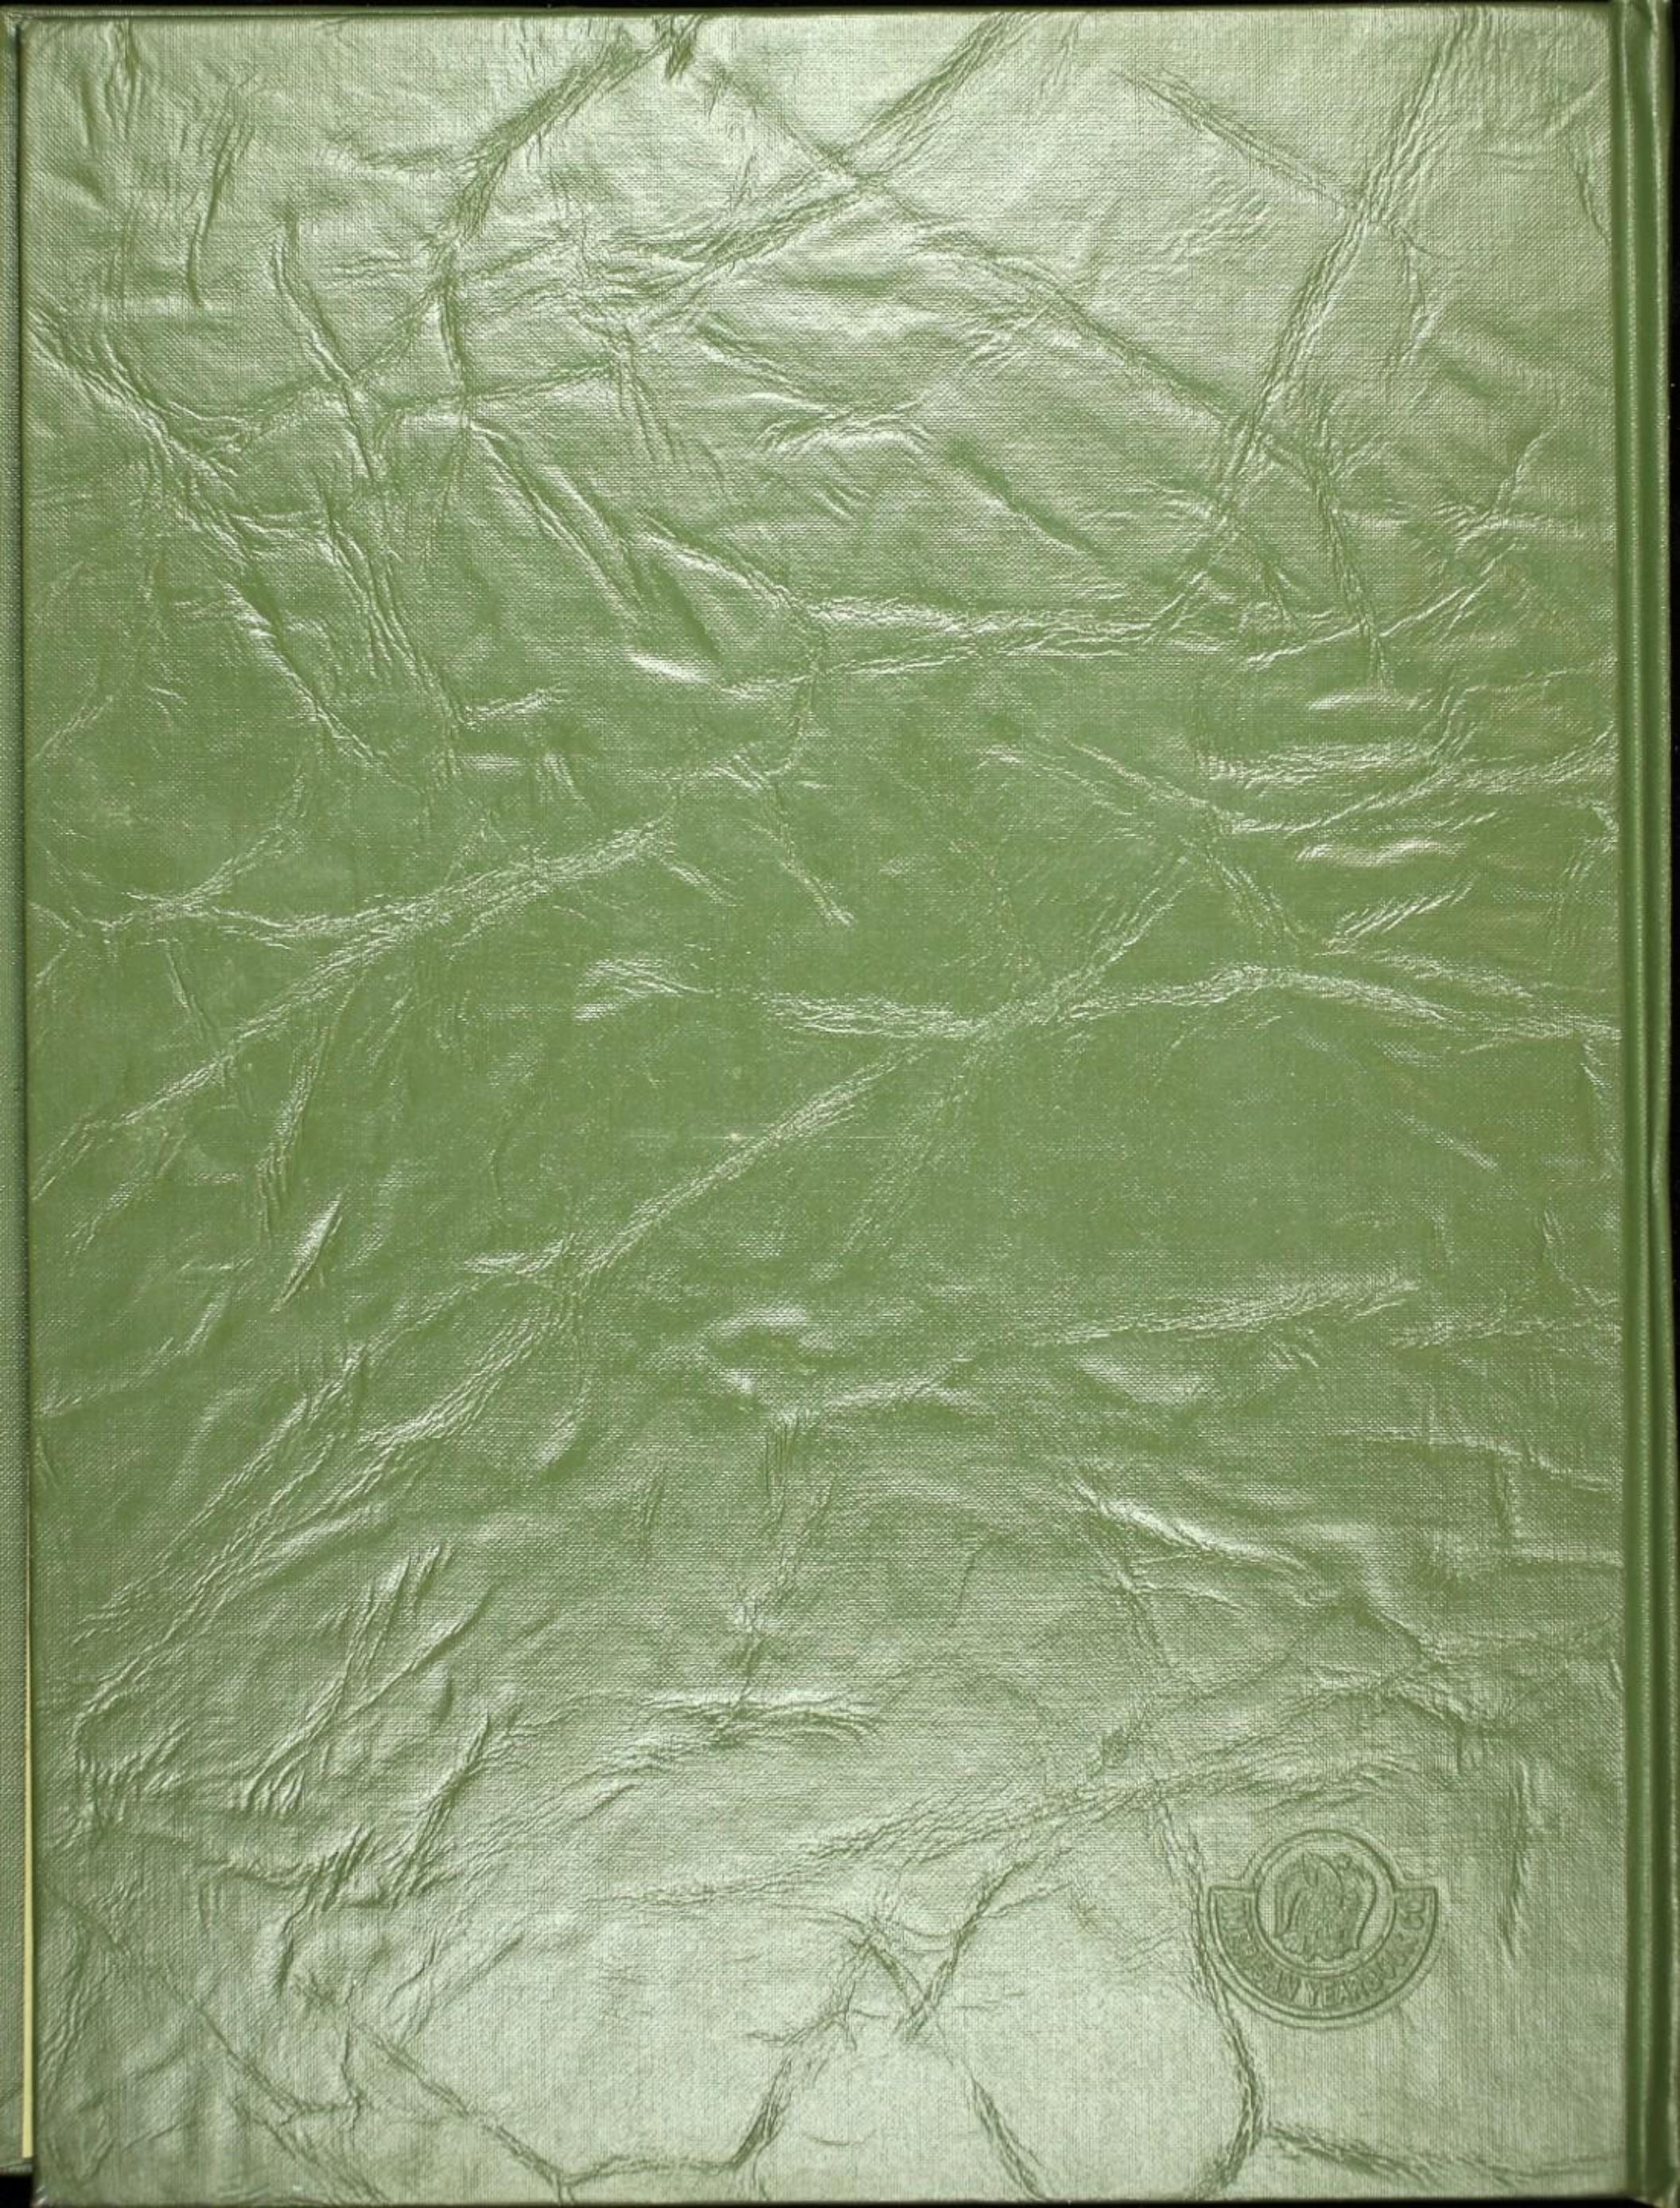
FINIS


Throughout the past four years we have laid the basis for our future lives. We are about to walk through the door to an unknown world with our knowledge to serve as the key to open the lock. In the years ahead, we will encounter many disappointments and hardships; but we hope to accept responsibility and meet the new challenges of putting our talents to use. May we prove we have been well prepared for the future and always strive to attain the highest goals. We hope to be successful in turning the "key of knowledge" to open the "door of power."
